NEWHAVEN HARBOUR

Scotland’s Deepwater Anchorage

Scotland’s Deepwater Anchorage offers convenient access to world-class attractions and events, making it an excellent destination for cruise ships. With its deepwater anchorage, it provides a safe and secure location for ships to anchor and for passengers to explore the local area.

Newhaven Harbour offers a unique experience for visitors with its picturesque quayside, bars, cafes, and restaurants. Just inland from the historic Newhaven pier lighthouse, the Victorian fish market contains a traditional fishmonger, plus the stunning Loch Fyne restaurant, offering fabulous Scottish seafood.

Newhaven has unrivalled connections to Scotland’s most iconic landmarks and visitor destinations. Walk in the footsteps of kings and queens to uncover a rich colourful history of epic battles, historic castles, and modern treasures. The historic harbour and deepwater anchorage offer a truly unique cruise shipping mooring.

Newhaven is the perfect place to dock your ship and explore the local area. Within a few minutes walk you’ll find the bustling town of Leith boasting delicious delis, chic drinking spots, and several Michelin Star restaurants.

The historic Edinburgh Tattoo is not to be missed, and the Edinburgh Castle offers stunning views of the city. Within an easy drive, you can visit Edinburgh’s most iconic landmarks, including the Royal Yacht Britannia and the Royal Botanic Garden.

Welcome aboard Newhaven Harbour.
